

BAILEYS of GLENROWAN

2018 SMALL BATCH SERIES ROSÉ

Baileys of Glenrowan is one of the pioneers of winemaking in North-East Victoria, producing its first vintage in 1870. Since this time, Glenrowan has become a world-renowned winemaking region. Baileys of Glenrowan continues to be recognised as an acclaimed producer of full-flavoured red and luscious fortified wines.

Our Small Batch Series is crafted as the best expression of the unique landscape and climate of our Bundarra vineyard, planted over ancient red granite soils. These wines are produced organically to showcase the diversity of varieties in the region. This Rosé has developed exceptional flavour characteristics from time spent growing with warm sun-filled days and crisp cool nights for natural acidity and to preserve a sense of delicacy.

Winemaker's Note	Copper salmon coloured with a lifted floral and cassis aroma. The palate is juicy bright and tastes of strawberries and cream, delivering a tight acid and grapefruit line with a crisp dry finish. Best enjoyed whilst young and fresh.
Vintage	An even growing season without any heat spikes produced well balanced vines and allowed the grapes to ripen slowly and naturally on the vines and be harvested at peak timing.
Vineyards	Baileys Bundarra Organic Vineyard planted on the slopes of the Warby range.
Winemaking &amp; Barrel Ageing	Gently pressed, making sure to only retain the lightly coloured free run juice. The juice is then fermented in 75% seasoned French oak barriques and hogs heads for complexity and texture, and a small component in tank for vibrancy and freshness.
Enjoy	Serve chilled to match with seafood linguine, Summer salads or enjoy whilst lazily grazing charcuterie boards.
Analysis	Alc/Vol 13.4%	TA 6.7g/L	pH 3.48	RS 0.39g/L*
